GUEST INSTRUCTORS

Douglas Eltzroth

Director for the arts ministry, Collage in Jackson, MS. Collage to create avenues and opportunities for using the arts for Christian worship, encourage and stimulate the believer towards offering of our lives to God. As a songwriter, artist, storyteller and teacher Doug is known internationally as a designer and leader of Christians assembled together: arts worship services, retreats, conferences, concerts around the world.

Doug's songs have been recorded by Bill & Gloria Gaither, Buddy Greene, Tony Melendez...while his praise music is sung each week by the Church at large. Truth is communicated in a profound, yet touchable manner and there are few who can present Jesus with such simple yet complex understanding.

WORKSHOP SYNOPSIS

- Dancing Prayers
Explore various creative ways to pray through the language or movement of our bodies. Using the Psalms and our own prayers as individuals and collectively our prayer dance will be lifted to God.
- Dance Education/Career
Making dance a growing profession and investigate the God given opportunities for dancers or dance educators to have great influence and make impact in the secular marketplace or Kingdom of God.
- Dance for the Disabled
There are those with physical, developmental and emotional disabilities who have had limitations in how they can move. This segment will explore various possibilities and creative way to engage dancers with and without disabilities.
- Teaching Children Dance
As a basis using biblical stories, songs and visual art we will discover fun filled expressions to engage children in meaningful and creative movement.
- Music and Dance Connection
Relate and demonstrate how musicians can partner and support those who express their worship through music, songs and movement on stage and those in the congregation.
- Art-Full Worship Service
Design a collaborative art-full service involving the varied arts: theatre, drama, dance, painting, visual, poetry and music to enhance the life and worship of the Church.
- Contemporary Worship Leading
To create a dynamic, spontaneous & contemporary approach to worship leading from the individual to the blending of several artistes, congregation and several art forms.
- Composing Music for Dance
Choose & composing appropriate music for dance in a worship gathering & Christian events. This important process is crucial for dance to be accepted and used effectively.
